

Title

Responsive portfolio website

Problem solving :

A personal portfolio website show cases skills, experience and project to potential employees or client it demonstrate expertise and provide a mean for other to get in touch

Project overview:

The personal portfolio website project involves designing and developing a website that highlights skills experience and project it in to be visually appealing user friendly and adaptable to various device

End user:

The end user or potential employees collaborators or clients who want to assess skill and experience they will visit the website to learn about the background view project and get in touch

Tools and technologies:

The website will be built using HTML CSS and JavaScript with a CSS framework for design deployment platform like github page will be used

Portfolio design and layout:

The websites design will be clean modern and responsive ,showcasting, content effectively across devices it will includes sessions for introducing projects and contact information

Features and functionality:

The website will feature a responsive design easy navigation and a contact form or email link it will show case project with description and link to live the mass or github repositories

Result and screenshot:

The project will result in a fully functional website that meet design and functionality goals screenshot will demonstrate the websites lay out and user experience

Conclusion:

The personal portfolio website project established and online professional presence showcasing skills experience and project on visually appealing manner

GitHub link:

The GitHub blank provide access to the project source code allowing visitors to view folk or get inspiration for their own portfolios